

Good people take time to find.

When you find them you never want to leave.

Why choose Dr. Fern? In 2 words - Personalized Care

In our office you do not spend your child's appointment waiting for your 10 seconds with the Doctor. Here you have Dr. Fern for your entire appointment and her undivided attention. You are speaking directly with Dr. Fern. She is addressing your concerns, answering your questions, discussing your child's present oral health needs and making a plan for at least the next 6 months.

You have our genuine commitment to providing your child with individualized care in a comfortable, fun and safe environment.

Dr. Fern is here to help you make a positive change in your child's oral health care and your family's dental experiences.

Now that you've found us you'll never want to leave.

We're here just for kids!
